ORDER:

Sanction is accorded to the payment of honorarium as shown in the annexure to these proceedings to the Lecturers, Teachers and others whose services were utilised in connection with the short training courses in Home Craft organised for L.T. and Secondary Grade Teachers employed in Secondary Schools for Girls in the Queen Marry's College and other centres during April-June 1951.

2. Sanction is also accorded to the payment of travelling allowance and dearness allowance according to Madras Travelling Allowance Rules to the following three teachers who had to leave their stations for conducting the training courses. These teachers need be paid no remuneration.

1. Kumari N.A. Mangathayaramma, B.A., B.Ed.
2. Kumari P.E. Hemalatha B.Sc., L.T.
3. Kumari S.A. Paul B.A., L.T.

3. The expenditure herein sanctioned will be met from the provision made in the current years' budget for the organisation of the training courses.

4. As the training courses were conducted during the summer vacation the Government accept the recommendation of the Director of Public Instruction that teachers who conducted the training courses and those who underwent the courses, whether they be in Government service or in the service of local bodies, should be deemed to have not availed themselves of the period of vacation equal to the duration of the courses so that they may get the benefits of the provisions of rule 82 of the Fundamental Rules. The Director of Public Instruction is requested to issue similar instructions in the case of teachers in schools under private management.
